

How does this passage point us to Jesus?

What shines forth from the passage? What draws your attention, or jumps out at you?

What is hard to understand, what would you like to ask God about?

What does this mean for my life?

---

How does this passage point us to Jesus?

What shines forth from the passage? What draws your attention, or jumps out at you?

What is hard to understand, what would you like to ask God about?

What does this mean for my life?

